24.08. 07.00 pm How to continue with our online-projects?

Let's have a talk

I am really enjoying all this online-meetings and I see so much potential in it for the future. And I believe we can create CREATIVE and FUNNY formats and ideas for future activities. I would like to invite you all to come online together and to develop together ideas. And I also would like to invite you to become active in this project. So far I am asking guest-speaker and organizing the meetings. I would love to do it in a team with others. I hope to see you at the 24.08. at 07.00 pm

10.09. 08.00 pm with Gökhan about Turkish literature

Even though European media is interested in the social and political movements in Turkey, the Turkish literature isn't that much known among the European people. Orhan Pamuk got the Nobel Literature Prize in 2006 and after that he became too popular in Europe. But is he the only literaturist from Turkey to be known? Of course, not. That's why, I would like to tell you about some other literaturists from Turkey. There books are translated to your language, too, and you can read them after this presentation."

07.10. 05.00 pm Why and how to go out into nature with children

80 % of all children like to spend time in nature, for 83 % of all children it is relaxing to be in nature.

"We love being in nature - because nature has no opinion about us." Friedrich Nietzsche "The old Dakota knew, that the heart of a person, who lost the connection to nature, will become harsh. They knew, if humans are losing the respect for everything that is alive and everything that grows, they will also forget to respect people. That why the influence of nature, who makes young people tactful, is part of our education." Luther Standing Bear (1868 – 1939)

During this presentation you will get to know some scientific findings, why it is so good to go out into nature with children.

Method Training

26.10. 06.00 pm Climate Education, introduction of 2 workshops suitable for pupils

Workshop 1: Introducing the 90-Minute-City-Walk, called "temperaTOUR". It is about how much your own lifestyle is creating climate gases, when you move, eat, buy. It includes different games about the topic "consumption and climate change". Over 150 times we were running this workshop in the city center of Hannover. But it also can take place in a school-classroom. Workshop 2: Climate justice & Climate stories: Who is responsible for the global warming? Who is suffering the most? How could global climate justice look like? How to give Climate Change a face? How to make it visible?
